

Casino Royale

Pop, Rock, & Soul of the Sixties

Casino Royale triumphantly marches into the new millennium heralding the return of the most colorful, hip, ridiculous and most musical era of pop music.

Bacharach classics such as 'What's New, Pussycat?', 'Always Something There To Remind Me', 'I Say A Little Prayer', 'The Look Of Love'; soul shakin' hits 'Son Of A Preacher Man', 'Shout', 'Hard To Handle'; and period-defining tunes like 'These Boots Were Made For Walkin'', 'I Got You, Babe', 'Secret Agent Man', 'Mellow Yellow', and 'Incense & Peppermints'

'I think it's super!'
- Burt Bacharach

Together since 1999, this 10-piece band's songs, dances and style all set the tone for a happening like no other.

Hippie chic and Go Go fashion such as the miniskirt and boots, velvet suits, flowers and beads; spy culture mystique with daring, dashing men and sexy secret agent babes are all represented in Casino Royale's action packed performance - one that gets your guests dancing and makes the party one to remember!
